DEATHS.

—A telegram announcing the death of Benj. F. Waller, at Jacksonville, Fla., last Friday caused universal sorrow among his Paris friends. The deceased had frequently visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Booth, at this place, and by his quiet genial manner made a host of friends, who sincerely regret his untimely death.

—Matthew Martin, a bachelor, aged about 80 years, was found dead in bed at his home near Jacksonville, this county. He leaves two sisters.

—Miss Mary Spillman, aged thirty-three years, of Lexington, died from the effects of carbolic acid taken through mistake for medicine. Miss Spillman was a frequent visitor to Paris, and her many friends express much sympathy. She was a most excellent young lady.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilmoth will regret to learn of the death of their little five months old son, Charles, Jr., at their home at Detroit, Mich., Wednesday, of diphtheria. The remains will be brought to this city for burial. Mrs. Wilmoth, who was Miss Louise Russell, is dangerously ill with the same disease.

THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky,
Where the "Old Home" got its name,
Where the fields are overflowing
With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn,
Tobacco plants—big as cactus—
Just as sure as you are born.

They're large as good-sized cactus,
Larger in our home-like view,
But it's of a fine a grade as
Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest,
Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers,
Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways,
Built high and dry from rains and flood.
Here the "good roads delegation,"
Swear the roads are suitably good.

But of pikes and highways finest,
There's a "road" that suits my taste;
Tis the line of Solon Comfort,
And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis,
Operates this road of class,
Across the famous old "Green River"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—
Hustle; beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"—
Tis a good one to acquire.

EXPLOSION IN A MINE.

Five Men Dead, Five Badly and Twenty Slightly Hurt.

The Body of One of the Victims Was Literally Torn to Pieces—Four of Those Who Were Injured May Die.

Carbondale, Ill., May 12.—In an explosion Wednesday at the shaft of the Big Muddy Coal and Iron Co. in Herrin, five men were killed outright, five seriously injured and 20 others slightly injured.

The dead are: John Miller, Dick Reins, Fritz Seiberg, Evan Williams and Thomas Green.

Fatally injured: John Swofford, Frank Lazonia and Angelo Scaroni.

The disaster was one of the most serious in the history of the coal industry in this section for many years. Six kegs of powder had been placed in the mine during the time intervening between the night and day shifts, for distribution to the men in the morning. John Miller, a driver, had charge of the distribution of the explosives.

Ten minutes after Miller was supposed to have accomplished his task, the electric current which runs the machines was turned on and the explosion followed. It is supposed that through some mistake the current was switched on before Miller had distributed the powder.

Preparations were hurriedly made by the men on top to learn the fate of their 40 or more companions below.

On reaching the passageway they were met by a frightful sight. The body of Miller, the driver, was literally torn to pieces. Evan Williams was found only a short distance from Miller, and four of those whose injuries may prove fatal were found in the same vicinity. The three others killed were farther from the pit and not so badly disfigured. The injured men were found in all parts of the mine. The dead and injured were taken to the top as rapidly as possible, the dead to an improvised morgue, and the injured to their homes or boarding houses.

The coroner's inquest began in Herrin Wednesday and will continue on Thursday.

ANTHRACITE MINERS.

They Will Receive No Advance on April Wages.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 12.—The various coal companies in the Wyoming and Lackawanna regions have been notified by Commissioner Neill that the miners will receive no advance on April wages under the sliding scale as the price of coal at tidewater was below $4.55 a ton. For March the miners received six per cent. advance. Since then there has been a cut in prices. For the next few months coal will advance 10 cents, a ton monthly and in this case the miners will soon receive some percentage above the basic rate fixed by the strike commission.

THE WESTERN MINERS.

Semi-Annual Meeting of the Executive Board in Denver.

Denver, Col., May 12.—The semi-annual meeting of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners began at headquarters in this city. Vice President John C. The board sent a message to Moyer extending him its "proud sympathy and earnest support" and received reply from the imprisoned official acknowledging receipt of the message to him.

AMERICANS AMBUSHED.

Two Officers and 15 Men Killed and Five Men Wounded.

Manila, May 12.—Lieut. Winfield Harper and 39 men of Company F of the 17th infantry were caught on May 8 in an ambush by several hundred Moros. Two American officers and 15 men were killed and five men were wounded. The ambush occurred at Simpatem, on the east shore of Lake Ligasuan, Island of Mindanao.

The officers killed in the ambush were First Lieut. Harry A. Woodruff and Second Lieut. Joseph H. Hall, both of the Seventh infantry.

(Lieut. Woodruff was born in Indiana and entered the service from the state of New York. Lieut. Hall was born in Alabama and was promoted to his lieutenancy from the ranks.)

SULTAN ASUME'S WEDDING.

Lanao Moros Praying and Feasting in Honor of it.

St. Louis, May 12.—At the Filipino reservation, World's fair, the Lanao Moros have started upon a program of steady praying and feasting in honor of the approaching marriage of Sultan Pitilian Asume. The bride-to-be is one of the 90 slave wives of Sultan Asume, it is stated, and the ceremonies will take place as soon as the Moros are comfortably settled in their village. The Moros began praying and continued it during part of Wednesday and devoted much of the remainder of the day to feasting. Praying and feasting periods will be observed every third day until the ceremony takes place.

PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

It is Claimed $150,000 Was Used Illegally in Policing It.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 12.—At a meeting of the board of councilmen Wednesday the committee appointed to consider President John J. Smith's charge that $200,000 of the city's money had been "squandered" or illegally expended, made its report. The report says that the committee believes that the $150,000 paid out by the city for police protection at the Pan-American exposition grounds during the summer of 1901 was expended illegally, the city having no more right to pay for a police force for the Pan-American exposition, a private corporation, than they have to organize and pay for a police force for any other private corporation.

THE NEPHEW CAUGHT ON.

Showed His Mercenary Uncle He Could Be as Saving as Anyone.

"Senor M—" is known all over the isthmus as the stingiest man who ever lived. He will have no lights in his house except candles, and the lone candle in his sitting room is not burned at night when he is talking to visitors and is not compelled to have a light.

"The old man has a nephew who makes the money fly. A short time ago he called on his uncle at night. While they were talking the old man blew out his candle. 'What did you do that for?' the youngster asked.

"'Why, we don't need the light while we are talking,' the uncle replied.

"While the boy was talking earnestly the boy began to shuffle about in the dark. Much annoyed by the

[Entered at the Paris, Ky., postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.]

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Claude M. Thomas, of Bourbon, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the Seventh District, subject to the action of the District Convention to be held in the city of Lexington, on Thursday, May 12, 1904.

"Boodler Buster" Wins.

Joseph W. Folk, the "boodle" prosecutor, has won his fight for the Democratic nomination for Governor in Missouri.

Although opposed by the entire State machine, which has controlled all elections in Missouri for many years, Mr. Folk has won his fight fairly. His campaign for Governor, just as his career as Circuit Attorney of St. Louis, has been based on his attitude of antagonism to "boodling" and "boodlers." Over in Saline county, last week, where the politicians, hoping to defeat him, had framed up a pledge to be required of every candidate going on their primary tickets, asked Mr. Folk to sign his name to a promise to support the Democratic nominees from Governor down. Mr. Folk smilingly penned his name, then added:

"It must be distinctly understood that I will vote against any Democratic nominee whom I know to be a boodler."

Mr. Folk has fought Governor Dockery, United States Senator Stone, Secretary of State Cook, State Auditor Allen, Police Commissioner Hawes, Mayor Reed, Judge Catt, Ed Butler, and a whole list of minor politicians, and has whipped them every one.

He has 285 uncontested delegates to the State Nominating Convention, having carried ten out of eleven counties chosing their delegates Saturday. Three hundred and fifty-six delegates are necessary to nominate Harry B. Hawes has 111 delegates, all in St. Louis.

Failing to carry a single county, Hawes has withdrawn from the contest. Mayor Reed has only 41 delegates. The field, to all intents and purposes, is finished.

By direct appeals to the people, by strenuous advocacy of a mighty principle, and an entirely novel issue, the young "boodler" prosecutor has wiped out the machine and will be nominated for Governor of Missouri. That he will be elected goes without saying. Prominent Republicans assert that forty thousand of their party will vote for Folk.

Let Clark Name Him.

There are now four candidates mentioned for the Democratic nomination for State Senate from this Senatorial District, composed of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery. By an understanding for a number of years these counties take turn about in choosing the Senator. It is now Clark county's time and all of the candidates named are from Clark. Would it not be the best for the candidates, a saving to them of money and time, to let their own county select which one of them shall be the standard-bearer? A primary should just be held in Clark county for this race, and the same rule should always be observed in regard to selecting a man for this office by each of the counties of the district. Let the county whose time it is to furnish a Senator select the man without the interference of the other two. This is our notion about the matter, and we think it would be for the best of all concerned.

SAY!—Talk to T. Porter Smith about the insurance. (18n-tf)

REFRESHING.—The beer at the Hotel Windsor Bar is at all times cold and refreshing.

FATAL FALL.—Daniel Duncan, a Lexington politician, one of the defendants in the election fraud cases set for trial in the Federal Court at London this week, fell from a third-story window of the Catchings Hotel and died about 12 o'clock Wednesday. He was found lying on the brick and stone pavement, about fifty feet below his window in the hotel, in an unconscious condition. His door was unlocked and the bed was turned down, giving the impression that he had gone to bed and had got up to lower the window and fell out.

A Most Deserving Home Boy Turned Out to Make Room For a Stranger.

On April 11, 1904, the Board of Education of the City School met, five out of the six members being present, and the record of that meeting shows that, "The ballot was then spread and Mr. M. A. Comack was elected Principal of the High School for the ensuing year."

Mr. Comack was notified of his election and has made all arrangements to teach the City School next year.

On May 9th, the August School Board met again, and without notice to Mr. Comack turned him out, or reconsidered his former action and attempted to place in his stead one Mr. R. T. Whittinghill, of somewhere in Tennessee. The only reason alleged being that the said School Board had adopted a rule requiring a teacher to receive four votes in order to secure a position in the school, and alleging that Mr. Comack had received the votes of but three out of the five members present at the first meeting.

If there was such a rule in existence, did not these learned gentlemen know it when they declared Mr. Comack elected? If not, did they have to wait until Mr. Brent, the absent member, returned, or did some other person tell them that the former action was invalid?

We do not know Mr. Whittinghill, and do not attempt to place any estimate on his worth or ability as a teacher, but we do know Mr. Comack, and we know that he is a very deserving young man of the best moral character and is reputed to be the most scholarly young man this county has produced in recent years. He is a graduate of Kentucky University, being one of the honor men of his class, and has some experience as a teacher and has given satisfaction. He was born and raised in Paris, and was educated by the Garth Fund of this county, being a good example of the fruits of that fund.

Both gentlemen were applicants for the position at the first meeting, and Mr. Comack was declared to be elected. Did the Board find out anything in the meantime detrimental to Mr. Comack's character that would impair his usefulness as a teacher? If they did, what is it?

If they did not, will the gentlemen rise and explain why this young man should be humiliated in such a manner?

The members of the School Board are all business men in this city, and expect the patronage of the home people, and should be entitled to receive it. Why do these gentlemen insist on bringing strangers to fill the positions in our schools, thereby sending our own deserving young men among strangers to seek employment?

Please answer, gentlemen, and let the public know the facts.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendants evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's Angust Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." That bottle of Angust Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drugists.—W. T. Brooks

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is not an unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boche's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks

THE WENTZ MYSTERY.

Coroner's Inquest Held on the Remains.

The Jury Returned a Verdict That "He Came to His Death by the Accidental Discharge of His Own Pistol."

Bristol, Tenn., May 11.—The shrunken and decay body of Edw. L. Wentz, of Philadelphia, was literally taken to pieces Tuesday afternoon by physicians and detectives in the course of the coroner's inquest, which was begun at 4 o'clock in the dark cavern of Black mountain.

Young Millionaire Wentz mysteriously disappeared October 14, 1903, and his body was found Sunday near Kelly View within a mile of the place where he was last seen alive. Wentz was in charge of his father's mines in Wise county. Since his disappearance more than $50,000 has been offered for any news of him.

The startling feature of the inquest was the discovery of a 32-caliber pistol ball in the body which might have been discharged from the empty pistol of the same caliber found 18 feet from the remains. The ball had passed through the fifth rib, entering in front, had penetrated the heart, a back rib and lodged in the muscles of the back one and a half inches from the spine. Several holes were found in the clothing where other bullets entered but beneath them the body was intact. The right hand was missing and was probably borne away by wild beasts. A white pearl button, which could not have belonged to the murderer, was found nearby.

There is little doubt that the ball penetrated the heart, as the physicians found evidence of hemorrhage in that portion of the body and an immense amount of blood congested back of the lungs. Detectives on the scene made careful examination of the pistol, finding it to be a Smith & Wesson, No. 85-0-50. Two cartridges were on either side of the hammer, but the chamber under the hammer contained an empty shell, as well as the two lower chambers.

It was stated Tuesday by persons close to the Wentz family that the question of reward will be settled as to the amount and time of payment after the verdict is rendered. There is a great difference of opinion as to the cause of Wentz's death, whether accidental, suicide or murder. Many believe it was suicide.

Bristol, Tenn., May 12.—"He came to his death by the accidental discharge of his own pistol," is the verdict of the coroner's jury, which for nearly two days has been investigating the circumstances and conditions surrounding the death of Edward L. Wentz, the young millionaire, whose body was discovered decayed and unburied on a spur of Black mountain last Sunday afternoon. The verdict came as a surprise in every quarter, as the great majority of the people who heard the evidence and examined conditions surrounding the body as it lay on the mountain believe the cause to have been suicide, while there are many others who say there is crime so deep and cunning as to make the affair more mysterious than ever.
